ALLEGATIONS:

On 12 OCT 2011 at 1025 hours, via mail, The Reporting Party Victim [REDACTED] complaint/Civil Suit was registered by Intake Aide Yolanda Toppins. Mr. [REDACTED] alleges on 11 MAY 2009 at 0006 hours at [REDACTED] that the accused, Detective Edwin Gorman, #20289, Unit 620, 1) Struck him with a squad car during his arrest; 2) stepped on his back during his arrest; 3) threw him in the backseat of a squad car during his arrest; and 4) punched him about the body during his arrest.

INVESTIGATION:

It should be noted that [REDACTED] who is currently incarcerated at Cook County Jail, is representing himself pro se in his civil suit.

In his Civil Suit, [REDACTED] alleges on the incident date that he was crossing the street when he was struck by a squad car being driven by Detective Gorman. The squad car struck [REDACTED] on the right side of his body, causing him to be slammed to the ground. Detective Gorman and an unidentified officer stepped on [REDACTED] back and handcuffed him. [REDACTED] was thrown in a squad car and transported to the district station.

[REDACTED] sustained overall pain to his body as a result of being struck by the squad car. [REDACTED] asked Detective Gorman why he struck him with the vehicle. Detective Gorman replied, "Because you ran, you shouldn't have ran." [REDACTED] stated to Detective Gorman, "I wasn't running from you." Approximately an hour after being at the district station, [REDACTED] was taken for medical treatment. While being transported to the hospital, Detective Gorman stated to [REDACTED] "You'll think twice next time you run from the police." Mr. Millsapp told Detective Gorman that he had no right to run him over with a car. Detective Gorman stated to [REDACTED] "If you run from us we can use any force necessary to stop you, including shooting you and you're lucky we didn't." [REDACTED] related that he sustained nerve damage to his foot, back, hip, and knee. (Att. #4).

[REDACTED] Arrest Report states that [REDACTED] was charged with Attempted Aggravated Vehicular Hijacking. The 1st and 2nd arresting officers were P.O. Edward Johnson, #9539/211, and P.O. Jerry Crisp, #12580/211.

The narrative of the report relates that officers responded to an attempted carjacking call in the vicinity of [REDACTED]. Officers observed [REDACTED] matching the description of the offender and fleeing the scene. Officers attempted to stop [REDACTED] but he continued to flee. After a short foot pursuit [REDACTED] was placed in custody. [REDACTED] was positively identified by the Victim, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] related that [REDACTED] approached her with a knife and demanded her keys. [REDACTED] refused to give [REDACTED] her keys. Thereafter, a struggle ensued between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] cut [REDACTED] on her hand and grabbed her keys away from her. Witness [REDACTED] approached the scene in his vehicle, at which time [REDACTED] fled.

According to the Visual Check of Arrestee Section, [REDACTED] did not have any obvious pain or injury. The Movement Log Section indicates that Detective Gorman received [REDACTED] on 11 MAY 2009 at 2017 hours, and took him to Area 1 for an interview. [REDACTED] was received back in lockup on 11 MAY 2009 at 2040 hours. (Atts. #5, 6).

The Original Case Incident Report related that the video surveillance obtained relative to this incident could not be viewed by Assistant States Attorney Leary. Detective Gorman obtained a new copy of the video surveillance and inventoried the video (#11788782). Detective Gorman CLEARED CLOSED the investigation arrest and prosecution. (Att. #6).

The Case Supplementary Report essentially related the same information mentioned in the Original Case Incident Report. (Att. #7).

In a To-From Report, Witness Officer Jerry Crisp related that he and his partner, Officer Johnson, responded to an attempted car jacking call. They observed [REDACTED] fitting the description of the carjacker and running. [REDACTED] stopped running momentarily, but when the officers attempted to stop [REDACTED] he again fled on foot. The officers exited their vehicle and pursued [REDACTED] [REDACTED] hopped a chain-link fence and fell to the ground. [REDACTED] got to his feet and continued to flee. [REDACTED] then climbed a wrought-iron fence (approximately 10ft. tall), and fell to the ground. As [REDACTED] attempted to get to his feet, P.O. Johnson apprehended him. [REDACTED] was detained and positively identified by the carjacking victim. P.O. Crisp related that he never observed any Department member physically maltreat [REDACTED] and that Detective Gorman was not involved in the apprehension of [REDACTED]. P.O. Crisp related that either he or his partner notified Detective Gorman of the arrest of [REDACTED] and that Detective Gorman conducted an interview of [REDACTED]. P.O. Crisp described [REDACTED] demeanor as polite and funny. [REDACTED] stated to P.O. Crisp and P.O. Johnson that he was not going to fight his case due to his previous criminal history, and that he was going to take the first deal offered to him by the State's Attorney's Office. (Att. #17).

In a To-From Report, Witness Officer Edward Johnson related essentially the same account of the incident as P.O. Crisp. P.O. Johnson also expressed how [REDACTED] was polite and so forthcoming in admitting his actions. (Att. #18).

In a To-From Report, Accused Detective Gorman related that he was not at the scene when [REDACTED] was apprehended and taken into custody. Detective Gorman's initial contact with [REDACTED] occurred at Area 1, when he conducted an interview of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] confessed to Detective Gorman that he committed the crimes alleged against him. Detective Gorman denied the allegations against him and related
